Craftsman Flooring partnered with Latus Group to conduct comprehensive health surveillance for their workforce. Latus carried out audiometry tests, spirometry tests, and visual skin checks for 22 employees.

This health surveillance initiative underscored Craftsman Flooring's commitment to employee health and safety. The company not only enhanced workplace safety but also strengthened employee morale and trust. Through these steps, Craftsman Flooring Ltd reaffirms its commitment to a safe, supportive, and health-focused workplace, setting a strong example within the industry.

“Admin staff & tester were both very professional, pleasant & efficient.”
